Selling Children's Books If your little readers are growing up, you can declutter your home and turn your children's old books into cash through these online websites. You can choose between using the trade-in program and setting up a seller account. If you're looking on a site with a map function, you may also see a map with the location pinned and an option to get turn-by-turn directions to the place you're calling. Reverse Phone Number Lookup A reverse phone number lookup is done when you have only a phone number and want to know who it belongs to before you call. MORE FROM ASKMONEY.COM Because everyone is pressed for time, the need to look up the summary of this book or that one is sometimes a priority. MORE FROM QUESTIONSANSWERED.NET You need to set up a profile on Etsy.com to start selling, and it's important to make your listing as detailed as possible to attract the right buyers. Unfortunately, purchasing or renting textbooks can be an expense some students have difficulty affording while in school. Here are the top sites you can make use of. Selling Vintage or Out-of-Print Books Are you a vintage enthusiast who's thinking about trading in some of your collection? Once you accept it, you receive a shipping label from the company. Then, in 2005, the demand for printed phone books started to drop. For example, they may need a summary of Roberts rules or a simple summary of Macbeth to help them write a research paper, and a book summary website will help them achieve that goal. Payment processing is relatively fast through check or PayPal. According to The Washington Post, 65% of students skip or delay buying or renting textbooks because the reading material is so expensive. Decluttr Decluttr.com offers a straightforward process to sell your kids' old books — you don't even need to sign up for anything. Additionally, if you don't sell any books, you don't have to pay the monthly fee. Etsy Etsy is an ideal place to sell your antique books. Ziffit As your kids outgrow their books, you can trade them in for cash through Ziffit. If that's not enough, some of these book apps and subscription services also provide links to videos, reports and TED talks for the books, as well. YouTube Channels Offering Book Summaries If you would rather not read a summary of books, there are many YouTube channels offering book summaries online. The platform allows you to compare book prices from over 35 websites that trade books. The printed phone books grew in popularity during the decades and centuries. Follow these guidelines to learn where to find book summaries online. Websites and Blogs Many websites and blogs offer summaries of chapters in books for free to their readers. By 2017, many states in the United States had even made it illegal to print phone books, according to TruthFinder. It's a wise idea to give your titles a higher chance of selling by listing them on the right marketplace. MORE FROM QUESTIONSANSWERED.NET An online phone book, like the Telkom phone book, provides a quick way to look up numbers of people and businesses you want to call or locate. Thanks to the website's Fast Next Day payment, you can receive your earnings a day after they receive your books. Photo Courtesy: fizkes/Stock Do you have stacks of old books sitting around your home that you don't know what to do with? Biblio offers low commissions and fees and can help you reach a broad audience of buyers who are interested in specialty titles. For example, you can upload photos of the book and use the website's sales data to attract more customers. Therefore, a wide variety of sites are available containing them. To get a better idea of your options, check out some of the best places to sell your books online, along with a few tips on how to get the most money for them. To do a reverse number lookup, choose a site that offers the service, such as WhitePages, navigate to the phone lookup section and enter the number. Instead of letting them collect dust, why not sell them online? Then, find the search box and enter the name of the person or business you want to call. Results to Expect If you're searching in the Telkom directory, expect to find the name, address and phone number of the party you want to call, if they have a listed number. Ziffit gives you the option to drop the books at a Collect+ store. While you may not find a short summary of Hamlet, you will see religious book summaries, book summaries for health-related topics, or topics for business-related books. Students Searching for Book Summaries Students are constantly on the lookout for book summaries for research purposes, as well as for books they need to read for classes. Then, when the company receives your package, you'll receive Amazon credits as payment. Biblio Biblio offers you the opportunity to trade your out-of-print or vintage copies internationally. All you need to do is enter your books' ISBNs and view the available offers for the books. CampusBooks.com also offers free shipping with payment processing through checks, cash, store-credit payments and PayPal. Alibris Gather your rare book collection and trade the titles for cash using Alibris.com. Once you accept the offer, you'll get a prepaid shipping label from FedEx or Media Mail. BookDeal With nearly 20 years in the book industry under its belt, BookDeal offers a transparent, easy and hassle-free process for selling old textbooks. It's advisable to compare prices of similar book sales to get a better idea how you should price your titles. Bookscounter.com Bookscounter streamlines your selling process by helping you find the best prices. Some of these services provide audio, PDF, and infographics of the books. Selling Textbooks New textbooks for students cost a fortune. The shipping is also trackable, so you'll know when the book is delivered to the company's offices. Unlike other websites, Etsy lets you set the price for your item. For example, your item description should include the author, publishing date and edition. If you opt for PayPal, you can receive your pay a day after processing your shipment. With the trade-in program, you submit your book's ISBN and fill out a questionnaire on your book's condition. All you need to do is use Decluttr's valuation engine or the free iOS or Android app to get an instant price for your book. Once you accept an offer, you ship the books for free to their destination. This free classifieds site is full of comic fans, and you can get multiple offers on your comics, especially if they're in mint condition. It was a single printed card with some numbers printed on it. This way, you don't have to worry about your books being too heavy to haul, Ziffit finds the right courier service and has them picked up from your door. The only difference is that the website links you to different buyback sites with multiple offers for your textbook. To do it, you enter the house number and street in one search box and the city and state or zip code in the second search box before running the query. Some of these channels follow a specific niche while others are about books in general. Research or Special Interest Book Summary Websites For those who need a summary of a book that covers a research or special interest topic, there are dozens of book summary websites focusing specifically on this. Keep in mind that, whenever you're selling books online, it's important to clearly outline your book's quality, condition and edition to avoid needing to make refunds to the vendors. You can search these sites by name, keywords or location and, sometimes, you can enter a phone number to do a reverse search. Telkom Cell Phone Contracts As Africa's biggest integrated telecommunications company, Telkom mobile contracts are also part of the company's offerings. Amazon On Amazon, you have a few options for selling everyday books. If that's not enough, some of these book apps and subscription services also offer links to videos, reports and TED talks for the books, as well. Comic Book Classifieds If you have any old comics or graphic novels you no longer want, Comic Book Classifieds may be the best avenue for selling. This type of search doesn't deliver consistent results, though it can be useful and delivers some results in map or satellite form. Brief History of Phone Books The first printed phone book was handed out in 1878 in New Haven. Expect to receive check payments within 10 business days. With a seller account, you'll list all your books and build different product pages for every book. Below are a few websites you can use to sell your textbooks online. It's part of a vast network of reputable buyback vendors, which allows you to get multiple quotes for your book from one platform. In addition, through the BookDeal website, you can input the book's ISBN and wait for the vendors to respond. AbeBooks is now working with Textbookrush.com to offer users a book-buyback service. Submit the ISBNs and get an instant quote through the website or free app, or scan the books using the app and get your quote in minutes instead of waiting during the bidding process. Campus Books Similar to the previous sites, you can sell your textbooks on CampusBooks.com by simply inputting your ISBN. One way to access an online phone book is through the browser of your mobile device. AbeBooks A great place to start is AbeBooks, a massive online used book marketplace. If you've hesitated in the past to sell online because of the complicated listing process, it helps to know that things are much easier now — and there are buyers out there interested in every title you can imagine. To sweeten the deal even more, there are many different websites where you can sell your old books. Amazon then makes you an offer for the book. To do this, open your device and run a search for either a specific online directory, such as Telkom or WhitePages. Some results may be free, while others may require a fee to unlock the information. Reverse Address Lookup A reverse address lookup is another type of search you can do if you only have part of the information about the number you need to find. Although it's known more for being an artist marketplace, many collectors flock to this website in search of unique antique items. These book summary sites contain information about the author, release date, characters, plot, and then move on to the summaries, like a short summary of Othello, for example. The purpose of these websites and blogs is to present an informal setting for people to enjoy books without feeling the pressure of making a purchase. Some of the bloggers and website owners also provide video and audio summaries, as well. Subscription Services and Book Apps It's possible to find chapter summaries of books available through subscription services, as well as book apps. Some present notes, reflections, and reviews that their readers can comment on, discuss, or reflect on. Photo Courtesy: pablohart/Stock Selling Everyday and Newer Titles Whether you have a collection of paperback bestsellers or you prefer to read mostly newer titles, these sites can help you sell them. BookDeal.com allows you to ship your book for free and get paid through Zelle, Venmo or PayPal. The platform provides commission-free sales for dealer-dealer trading as well. Alternatively, it can organize a courier service to pick them up. The platform provides antique booksellers with low seller fees and fraud protection. Other information that may be included if you're looking up a business is the company profile and a link to the company website. If you have old textbooks lining your shelves, selling them not only means revenue for you — it also goes a long way in helping students acquire the course materials they need. The minimum buyback is $15. But not all of them are ideal for every type of book you might be interested in selling.
